

From the Louisiana Advertiser.

The French Courier publishes the important intelligence that P. Derbigny, Esq. has been appointed Governor General of Louisiana, after a warm contest, in which General Jackson was his opponent! How states, geography, individuals, and history, are confounded with one single sweep of the pen!