

Ex-Gov. Michael Hahn, who represents the parish of St. Charles in the Kellogg Legislature, has taken the command of the opposition to Kellogg, and already manifests a rather troublesome anxiety about the Executive documents, which Kellogg states accompanied his annual message, but of which the Clerk of the House had no knowledge. "The question of veracity, therefore," remarked the Hon. Michael yesterday in the House, "would appear to be against his Excellency."