

ALVIN O. KING

LAKE CHARLES, La., Feb. 22 (AP)—Alvin O. King, former acting Governor of Louisiana, died at a hospital last night. His age was 67.

Mr. King served as acting governor in 1931-32 when the late Huey P. Long left the Governorship to go to the United States Senate. At the time, Mr. King was president pro tempore of the State Senate.

The New York Times

Published: February 23, 1958

Copyright © The New York Times