

NECROLOGY.

Mrs. Emma K. Gardner.

(Special to the Picayune.)

Lafayette, La., March 1.—Mrs. Emma K. Gardner, relict of the late Governor Alexander Mouton, died this morning, aged 77 years and 7 months. Deceased was a sister of General Frank Gardner, of Port Hudson fame, and leaves a large family to mourn her loss.

Mrs. Gardner lived at the old homestead just east of Lafayette, in quiet seclusion, for the past few years of her life, owing to feeble health. Mrs. Gardner was a lady of refinement and culture, her home in ante bellum days being famous for hospitality and the entertainment of distinguished guests. The funeral will take place to-morrow at St. John's church.

Miss Agnes I. Crosbie.

(Special to the Picayune.)

Moss Point, Miss., March 1.—Miss Agnes I. Crosbie died here yesterday evening, aged 21 years. Her remains will be interred in the Pascagoula cemetery Monday. Deceased was an amiable Christian young lady, and her loss will be mourned by her host of friends. She leaves a mother, sister and brother to mourn her loss. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Edward Chase.

St. Louis, March 1.—Mr. Edward Chase, just appointed the manager of the St. Louis Clearing-house Association, died at his home of neuralgia and la grippe, superinduced by an attack of grip. Mr. Chase was born in Taunton, Mass., twenty-three years ago.

Mrs. Susan L. Vanderpool.

(Special to the Picayune.)

Biloxi, Miss., March 1.—Mrs. Susan L. Vanderpool, wife of L. B. Vanderpool, died in this city last evening, in the fifth year of her age. She was buried to-day at 3 p. m.
