

DEATH OF JUDGE NICHOLLS.—The Donaldsonville papers come to us in mourning for Judge THOMAS C. NICHOLLS, who died at that place on the 12th instant, at the age of fifty-seven. Judge NICHOLLS was a Marylander by birth, and has resided in this State for many years, having been for a long time Judge of the 4th District Court, and lately one of the Judges of the Court of Appeals in criminal cases. Judge N. was a veteran of the late war, having been engaged in the operations below New Orleans in 1814 and 1815. He was a just and honorable man—a faithful and capable judge—a patriotic and high-minded citizen.—New Orleans Delta.
