

Noe Gets Out of Race For Louisiana Governor

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 7 (AP).—

Lieut. Gov. James A. Noe of Monroe Monday night announced his withdrawal as a candidate for Governor in the January primary.

Noe, a close friend of the late Senator Huey P. Long, had bolted the administration headed by Gov. O. K. Allen when he was ignored in the selection of the administration set of candidates.

Noe said he would run as an administrationist for re-election to his seat in the State Senate from Ouachita and Jackson Parishes.
