

Warmoth and His Wife.

London Correspondence of the New York Graphic.

Did I tell you Gov. Warmoth, of Louisiana, was with us last week? He is a tall, handsome and youthful person, of agreeable manners and a quiet demeanor, which tells no story of the stirring scenes he has passed through. He is on his bridal tour, accompanied by his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Durand, of New Orleans. They are of the old type of Southern gentlefolks, uniting the graceful French ways to the more resolute American style. Mrs. Warmoth is a tall, graceful, dark-eyed girl, aristocratic and very French looking. They have now gone to Paris.
