

DEATH OF GOVERNOR ALLEN.—We have been favored by a commercial house of this city with the following extract of a letter :

CITY OF MEXICO, April 25, 1866.

Gov. Henry Watkins Allen, of Louisiana, died last Sunday, April 22d, at 11 o'clock. His illness was short. He had many friends and skillful physicians to attend him.

The writer of this letter was well acquainted with Gov. Allen, and was present at the time of his death. No doubt can be entertained of the correctness of the sad intelligence. Henry Watkins Allen was a man of generous and noble instincts. No man in Northern Louisiana was more beloved. He perilled everything for a falling cause, and now in exile has breathed his last.
