

Delegates to the National Union Convention.

The friends of President Johnson and of his liberal policy of reconstruction, in the various parishes of the State, have now been heard from, and in concert with the National Union Association and the Andrew Johnson Club of this city, the following list of Delegates to the National Union Convention at Philadelphia, on the 14th of August, has been chosen to represent Louisiana therein. As this Convention is called by none of the old political parties, but has its organization among the independent friends of President Johnson throughout the Union, without regard to former party affiliations, it is certain no better representative delegates could be chosen. All of these gentlemen are known to have been among the earliest and most influential friends of the President and of his wise, constitutional policy of the reconstruction of our common country. The Delegation to Philadelphia is as follows:
