

It was unfortunate for the Hon. Morris Marks and the Hon. Michael Hahn that they were in company with red-head Anderson when committing an assault on the Hon. John Sherman. It is possible, since the accident, that Mr. Sherman will not see the desirability of appointing one of these gentlemen collector of internal revenue and having the other appointed consul-general to Havana in as strong a light as he did a few days ago.

---