

Death of Ex-Gov. Thos. O. Moore.

We regret to learn, at the moment of going to press, of the death of ex-Gov. Thos. Overton Moore, which occurred at his residence in Rapides parish, Louisiana, on Saturday, June 24, 1876. Gov. Moore was born in North Carolina, and was, we believe, about seventy-five years of age. We learn that a very large number of persons attended his funeral and accompanied his remains to the grave in that "garden of the dead" opposite Alexandria, La. He had been in very bad health for many months. At a future day we may give a further sketch of the life of this good man and patriotic Governor, who served his loved Louisiana so well in the days of our late war.
