

MRS. HOLMES GETS DIVORCE.

Suffrage and Club Worker Becomes Mrs. Wickliffe.

Mrs. Lydia Wickliffe Holmes was granted an absolute divorce from Colonel William S. Holmes, member of the conservation commission, by Judge Ransdel in district court at Tallulah, La., her attorney here was advised yesterday. Mrs. Holmes was permitted to resume the name of a former husband, and becomes Mrs. Lydia Wickliffe. She is one of the heads of the Louisiana League of Women Voters and is active in suffrage and club work. A resident of Baton Rouge, Mrs. Wickliffe will spend some time in New Orleans, where her daughter is attending school.
